Easter Messages

Risen with Christ

"Do not be terrified. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen, he is not here."

Christ has risen! Thus He triumphs over death, the most terrible of all tyrants. None of the great conquerors ever won such a victory. On the contrary, death so far had vanquished everybody. But Jesus Christ, once and for all, conquered death.

Christ's resurrection is a triumph, but it is also the revelation of a new existence. Christ is no longer the same. Formerly He came and went; now He "appears". He is no longer held by the limitations of an ordinary human body.

The resurrection of Christ is also the introduction and the pledge of our own resurrection. According to the testimony of Holy Writ the baptized became participants of Christ's death and resurrection. Christ has not only become the model of our resurrection, but we have already risen with Him.

So let us rejoice in His Resurrection. Let us rejoice with Him, for His resurrection is the pledge of our own. Because of Easter, death has become the beginning of a new and better life. Because of Easter we walk through this life with the certainty that life everlasting awaits her. Because of Easter all our enemies and powers of Nature are powerless. Because of Easter no difficulty, no cross is heavy, no temptation too great. Because of Easter, our earthly life has been transformed.

We have to continue our daily tasks, but the light of Easter shows us that we are called to greater things. May thus the light of Easter lead us triumphantly through the minor sufferings and greater crosses of this life to the glory of our own resurrection.

Father Georges Chevrier, OMI,
St. Albert Roman Catholic Church.

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me though he were dead, yet shall he live. John 11:25

Death is the great enigma of life. Humanly speaking it is an insoluble mystery: it is the one secret of the universe which is kept, the silence which is never broken. To the weary and despairing it may come as a friend, the cynical and disillusioned may meet it with indifference, to the healthy and happy it may appear as a foe, but as friend or foe it comes to all. There is no earthly tie too sacred for death to loosen. It reduces the exalted and lowly to a common denomination of dust.

From the dimmest beginnings of history we find men pondering the problem of the beyond and then - came the first Easter day! The stone was rolled away. One Traveller had returned, One who tasted of death for every man. "I am the Resurrection and the life" became a glorious reality! Death is swallowed in victory! O death where is thy sting? O grave where is thy victory? "He that believeth" may now look at the reality of death, but with the song writer say "Living He loved me; dying He saved me; Buried, He carried my sins far away; Rising He justified freely forever: One day He's coming - oh glorious day!

Pastor H. R. Onishenko,
St. Albert Pentecostal Church.

UNITED CHURCH NOTICES

On Palm Sunday, the Baptist, Pentecostal and United Church congregations of St. Albert gathered in the United Church Sanctuary for joint Palm Sunday Services. Rev. H. Onishenko of the Pentecostal Church preached the sermon. The choir, under the leadership of Mrs. P. Upright, sang "God So Loved the World" by Stainer. A supper meeting was held in the church lower hall by the Hi-C. The Hi-C counsellors were assisted in the supper preparations by Mrs. E. G. Hole. Following the supper, a business meeting was held and details for promoting the "Landscaping" to be held by the Hi-C in the Church Lower Hall, on 20th April between 2-5 p.m., were completed. The group then attended the Evening Service. The Evening Service for April was held at 8 p.m. Mrs. E. G. Hole was at the organ, Mrs. W. Cuts and Mrs. R. Kittlitz sang a duet. Mr. Roy Gilley led the congregation in a period of hymn singing. Dr. Ed Schwarz conducted the service and preached on the topic "The Christian and Chance". A fellowship and coffee hour followed the service.

After Paul shows how three ravaging forces of evil separated us from God, he lists three redeeming facts.

The fact of God's mercy, the fact of His love, and the fact of His grace. The transition is marked with the words "BUT GOD" (2:4). These words mark the turning point of man's destiny. We were separated from God by the world, the devil and the flesh. "BUT GOD" God intervened and, were it not for His intervention, we would still be dead in our sins and separated from Him. Against the dark picture of human ruin we see divine redemption. Doomed to wrath "BUT GOD".

1) There is the fact of His mercy: "But God, who is rich in mercy" (Eph 2:4) Praise God for His mercy, for it was mercy we need. What is mercy? It is God's exercise of pity and compassion upon the sinner with a forbearance he does not deserve. The whole of our salvation is ascribed to the mercy of God. When God who hates sin, loves and saves the sinner, that is mercy. "He is the Father of mercies" (2 Cor. 1:3) and we need only come to His throne of grace to obtain mercy" (Heb. 4:16)

Let us say with the Apostle Peter: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to His abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead". (1 Peter 1:3)

2) Then too, there is the fact of His love: For His great love wherewith He loved us" Ephesians 2:4

Abundant mercy and great love! Oh the love of God! who can fathom it? Who can explain it? We can do nothing better than ponder His own Word: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16) "But God commendeth His love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." "Rom 5:8) "In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because God sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him". (1 John 4:9)

3) Finally, there is the fact of His grace: "By grace ye are saved" (Eph. 2:5, 8)

Grace is everything for nothing. It is helping the helpless, going to those who cannot come in their own strength. Grace sets aside my unrighteousness and demerit and gives me a righteousness I do not merit. God owes me nothing but He offers me complete salvation. It was planned by God before the foundation of the world. The world, the devil and the flesh separated me from God, but by MERCY, LOVE and GRACE, He saved me.

Dear reader, do you say that you are a Christian? "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth". (Col. 3:1-2)

Rev. James Joly,
St. Albert Baptist Church.

Easter Message to the People of St. Albert

As a newcomer to the service of this community, may I join with my fellow clergy in wishing you God's blessing at this time.

Dure is the task of creating a new community. Houses are springing up, families are moving in, but only when our common life together is built upon the enduring principles which Christ has given, will a real sense of community come into being. As we worship this Easter, may the spirit of the Risen Christ renew us, and so bring new life to our community and to the world about us. Surely this is what our world so desperately needs if it is to find the basis for unity and brotherhood, which God alone can give, and without which we shall certainly perish.

Rev. C. Dawkins, Priest in Charge,
St. Matthew's Mission.

Ladies Singles was won by Erma Coster from the Sturgeon Valley Club. She took the event in straight sets of 11-2, 11-5 against the High School and 11-7, 11-5 against the St. Albert Badminton Club (Vital Grandin).

The Men's Single was won handily by Ed Martyna from the St. Albert Club, in straight sets of 15-12, 15-9 against Sturgeon Valley Club and 15-4, 15-0 against the High School.

Women's Doubles trophies were taken by Lona Senior and Meg Armstrong of the Sturgeon Valley Club in sets of 15-7, 15-5 against the High School. Then they had a real battle against the St. Albert Club who took them to three games before being finally defeated 15-8, 9-15, and 15-13.

The Men's Doubles was taken by Don Barclay and Ben Schraeder, who tied the score at 14-14 with both clubs, then with a brilliant display of playmaking came out on top with sets of 17-14 and 15-2 against the St. Albert Club and 17-15 and 15-11 against the Sturgeon Valley Club.

The trophy donated to the outstanding player of the meet was voted unanimously by the referees to Ed Martyna. Honorable mention was given to runners-up, Erma Coster and Don Barclay.

The aggregate honors went to the Sturgeon Valley Club who sneaked past the St. Albert Club. The clubs were tied with wins in two events, but the Sturgeon Valley Club had a narrow margin 14-12 in games won.

From Our Readers

Dear Sir,
Since we have two children in school who were eligible for "capital" punishment, I feel their experiences might profitably be shared.

When our daughter was in grade one, and several other children were very mindful of "bells" calling them back to class after recess. This problem persisted until one day these children each received a light buff on one hand from the Principal. This is known as "strapping". We expect our children to obey at home and presume they obey teachers and all adults responsible for them wherever they may go. Even though we had stressed this, it was still necessary for our girl to learn that obedience was important through disciplining.

This proved a good experience for her and she holds her principal and school with respect and affection.

I had occasion, before Christmas, to learn that even this "light" strapping is withheld if circumstances warrant. The teachers and Principal, have proven to be very understanding.

Most important, the Protestant school board has initiated and supported many fine activities for all children of St. Albert who wish to take part: swimming, gymnastics (through the Y organization) and family movies.

We can trust them, the members of the School Board, the teachers and officials in charge of administration, of our school, to discipline wisely.

They have proven themselves worthy of our respect and support.

Thank you for the opportunity of contributing our appreciation for their efforts in your paper.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Betty Millman

The Party Line

The Election is over but here we are again with another minority government. We can only hope the factions in our parliament can put aside party and personal differences and work together for the good of the nation. If they can not achieve some degree of co-operation we may find ourselves at the polls again next year!

Turning to happier thoughts, Easter is only days away. Small fry anxiously await the Easter bunny's arrival. While the weather isn't co-operating, Easter bonnets are being readied. It will be nice to change winter's garb for the lovely shades of spring. These trimmings we all look forward to are just that, trimmings, and we should all remember the real meaning of Easter. All the St. Albert churches will be filled doubtlessly as whatever the church the Easter services is one of the most beautiful of the year. So we take this opportunity to wish our readers all the blessings of Eastertide. Happy Easter!

Club Notes

The Chi Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi held a 'model meeting' recently at the home of Mrs. T. Whelan, 29 Glenmore Cres. Mrs. Blanche Fredrickson, president of the Beta Sigma Phi City Council of Edmonton gave a talk on the aims, purposes and obligation of the sorority. Plans were made for the chapter's fashion show to be held for the Grandin Shopper's Park birthday celebrations. Members of the chapter will model fashions from JoAnne's.

The United Church Women held their April Thank Offering Meeting. In keeping with the Easter season, the programme featured Mrs. Roy Kittlitz singing "The Holy City" and Mr. Doug Ingle showing his slides of Jerusalem.

Next month's meeting will have Naramata as the topic. There will be slides and also some former students from Naramata will tell of their experiences there. All women of the church are invited to these meetings.

THE ST. ALBERT ON STURGEON PLAYERS

ST. ALBERT ON STURGEON PLAYERS

"The Late Christopher Bean" is casted and preparation for the production on May 10th and 11th is now in full swing. Eleanor Ray, responsible for the success of "Ladies in Retirement" will give her capable direction to this play, and Marcia Scammell, familiar to us all from the previous plays, will assist.

The group welcomes a number of new faces who will make their debut on the St. Albert stage — Jeanne Irwin as Abby, M. Popoff as Mrs. Haggett, Marrin Galloway as Susan Haggett, Leandre Letourneau as Dr. Haggett, Dan Cournoyer as Mr. Rose, and Andrew Kampan as Mr. Tallant. You will remember Eleanor Wilson, this time as Ada Haggett, Doug Ingle as Warren Creamer, and Joost Weerheym as Mr. Davenport.

One of the many backstage jobs so important in the production of a play is the make-up. Our Drama Club is very fortunate to have the talents of Nan Tandrup to add the finishing touch to each character before he steps into the spotlight. Joy Wakefield will assist Nan for "The Late Christopher Bean". For the past ten weeks, they have been busy attending a Theatrical Make-up Course under the direction of well known Jerry Baril. On workshop on Wednesday, April 3rd, took advantage of this and asked Nan Tandrup to instruct the group on the application of straight make-up. Everyone present, after attempting to apply their own greasepaint, was in complete agreement that there was a lot more skill required than they expected.

It was decided that, rather than have a workshop evening April 17th, we would attend the Walderdale Playhouse production April 9th. Our next regular workshop will be May 1st, with everyone welcome to attend.

Remember — KEEP MAY 10TH and 11TH IN MIND FOR "THE LATE CHRISTOPHER BEAN"
